The New York Bar Foundation recently presented a grant of $2,500 to Catholic Migration Services, Brooklyn. The grant will be used to support their Immigrant Workers' Rights Program.

"Catholic Migration Services greatly appreciates the New York Bar Foundation's critical support of our Immigrant Workers' Rights Program," states Father Patrick Keating. "The Foundation's grant will support our efforts to help low-wage workers who have fallen victim to wage theft, and to help educate hundreds of other workers about their rights in the workplace, such as their right to receive the minimum wage and overtime, and to work in safe conditions."

In early 2017, The New York Bar Foundation allocated more than $640,000 in grants to programs across New York State. These grants assist in:

- Increasing public understanding of the law
- Improving the justice system and the law

- Facilitating the delivery of legal services
- Enhancing professional competence and ethics
