

Fellowship Opportunity for Fall 2018

Catholic Migration Services, a nonprofit provider of legal services for low income residents of Queens and Brooklyn, is seeking a candidate to sponsor for a post-graduate legal fellowship in our tenant advocacy group starting in the fall of 2018 (applications to fellowship foundations due fall 2017). Fellowship programs include the Skadden Fellowship Foundation, Equal Justice Works, Kirkland & Ellis New York City Public Service Fellowship Program, and similar programs.

Qualifications:

- Applicants should be rising third-year law students, recent law graduates with judicial clerkships beginning in the fall of 2017, or current judicial law clerks;
- Admission to the New York Bar, or taking the New York Bar Exam not later than July 2018;
- Proficiency in a second language is strongly preferred, including but not limited to Spanish, Korean, Mandarin, Cantonese or Bangla;
- A demonstrated interest in public service, including but not limited to serving low-income tenants or immigrants, is strongly preferred; and
- Strong oral advocacy skills, as well as analytical and writing skills.

Application Process:

Please send a cover letter, resume, law school transcript and list of three references by email to Andrew Lehrer, Managing Attorney, at alehrer@catholicmigration.org. Inclusion of a fellowship project proposal (i.e., what work within the tenant advocacy arena you propose to do) is recommended, but not required. Applications will be considered on a rolling basis through July 28, 2017.

Additional Information:

Catholic Migration Services is an Equal Opportunity Employer and we welcome candidates from diverse backgrounds. CMS offers a competitive compensation package that includes a pension plan.
